Andante très lent

The image displays a page of a musical score for the piece "Clair de Lune" by Claude Debussy. The score is written for piano and voice. It consists of five systems of music. The first system shows the beginning of the piece with the tempo marking "Andante très lent". The piano part features a delicate, flowing melody in the right hand and a supporting accompaniment in the left hand. The voice part enters in the second system. The third system continues the piano part's development. The fourth system is marked "Tempo ritardato" and features a more rhythmic piano accompaniment. The fifth system concludes the page with further piano accompaniment. The score is watermarked with "library.deedeebook.com" across several instances.
